

Information for Nominators

The following steps describe the nomination process for the Marcus Wallenberg Prize:

1. The Nominator submits a nomination, using the web (www.mwp.org) formula or by mailing/e-mailing the filled in pdf form to the MWP Secretariat. Focus should be on identifying the criteria breakthrough and significance and should give a proper identification of the individual(s) intended for the award. Please note that the Statutes of the Marcus Wallenberg Foundation do not allow any person to nominate himself or herself.
2. The MWP Secretariat confirms the receipt of the nomination and the Prize Selection Committee (SC) undertakes a first review.
3. If found necessary, the SC asks the Nominator for available, additional information e.g. CVs of the nominee(s), patents or relevant literature references.
4. The Nominator supplies any additional, available information.
5. If the nomination, after this additional supply of background material, is considered potentially prize worthy, the nomination undergoes a further review and assessment by the SC, involving the use of selected expert Readers, who are asked to answer specific questions regarding the criteria for an award.
6. After reviewing the Reader Reports, the SC decides on Prize worthiness and, in case of a positive decision, and if the nomination is considered the most Prize worthy of the nominations under current review, will give a recommendation to the MW Foundation Board to award the nominee(s).
7. The MW Foundation Board decides on the recommendation put forward by the SC.
8. If the nomination is not awarded or not proposed to be awarded, the nomination is maintained for active consideration by the SC during a period of three years from the date of submittal. The nominator is encouraged to submit any new, additional information of relevance during this period.
9. After the passage of three years, and if no further significant development occurs, the Nominator is informed by a letter from the Secretariat that the nomination will no longer be considered. The Nominator is reminded of the possibility to renominate the nominee(s), based on new, additional information of relevance.

Note: All activities described above are made under strict confidentiality.
